Important note for buyers of fit-PC2, fit-PC2i and Intel Atom Z5xx products

Dear CompuLab distributors and customers,

Intel announced pending EOL of Intel SCH US15W which is a major chip in fit-PC2, fit-PC2i, SBC-FITPC2 and SBC-FITPC2i.

The US15W EOL is scheduled for Oct 2014. CompuLab does not predict immediate shortage of the component or short term effect on our ability to manufacture the affected products. However, customers who are basing critical long-term projects on the affected products are advised to secure availability as detailed below.

Intel announcement can be found at <https://qds.intel.com/dm/d.aspx/8EEBA264-43C7-4F2F-84B5-AEF8D25869C1/PCN112656-00.pdf>
